This generously proportioned cottage is positioned on the Hitchin side of Arlesey, facing farmland across the road to the front and with vehicular rear access and gated off-road parking. With most cottages in terraces in Arlesey, this is one of the very few semi-detached homes and was built with a slightly larger footprint and ceiling height than many.

There are two receptions providing separate Living and Dining Rooms (each with marvellous period fireplaces), then a Kitchen and useful rear hall that attaches the main house to the former barn - this bonus space is still technically an outbuilding but has been lined & decorated to offer a practical work or storage space with potential for full conversion.

Outside there is more storage with a range of sheds neatly integrated to the side and rear of the building. The garden faces westerly with mature trees and shrubs providing afternoon shade and a good feel of seclusion. The garden continues into the parking area, allowing for varying priorities of garden versus parking, with double timber gates out to Albone Avenue at the rear.

Upstairs, two genuine double bedrooms, each with period fireplace features. The front bedroom has large wardrobes and a view out to the fields whilst the rear also has a fireplace, storage area and plenty of space for bedroom furniture.

Location

Arlesey is a large village just North of the Beds/Herts border, surrounded by countryside yet within easy reach of the A507 and A1(M). The village offers a range of local shopping, pubs and food outlets and significantly a Mainline Railway station with direct travel to London St. Pancras in under 40 minutes. Dating back as long as the 1086 Domesday Book, there is a broad range of home styles and building eras - something for everyone! Gothic Mede Academy provides Primary education in the middle of the village, with numerous Secondary options including Etonbury Academy on the Arlesey/Stotfold border. Further facilities and shopping are available within a few miles in the larger towns of Letchworth Garden City and Hitchin to the South.
