Situated in this peaceful, sought-after village is this charming semi detached home, constructed in 2007 in a sympathetic Georgian cottage style with all modern conveniences. The cul-de-sac location means minimal traffic and the house looks out toward trees and a large green area. This desirable plot not only offers the leafy outlook, but a two car driveway and a southerly aspect rear garden.

Accommodation is generous at approx 775 sq ft including two double bedrooms, both with built-in storage/wardrobe, guest cloakroom downstairs and ample reception, dining and kitchen space. The kitchen/diner is fitted to include all appliances: integrated fridge/freezer & dishwasher, washing machine and electric oven, gas hob and extractor. Gas radiator central and double glazing throughout.

Location

Weston is a village and civil parish in the North Herts district of Hertfordshire, England. The village lies in the Hitchin postal district and sits approximately 2.5 miles south of Baldock (the closest town) and 7 miles east of Hitchin. Both Stevenage and Letchworth Garden City are also nearby. The village offers an attractive rural village environment with three pubs, local shop, primary school (ages 3 - 11) and village hall. Weston is surrounded by beautiful countryside and a wealth of rural footpaths yet just minutes drive to a wider range of facilities at Baldock.
